Who Are We?

The Decatur Business Association is a membership organization representing businesses, professionals, financial institutions, arts groups, associated agencies, organizations and private individuals who share an interest in promoting the City of Decatur. We serve as advocates for the business interests of the City and promote the City of Decatur as a unique, thriving, small-town experience in metro Atlanta.

Meetings

The Decatur Business Association meets on the 4th Tuesday every month at different locations within the City of Decatur. Meetings begin at 5:15 p.m. with a networking reception. The program begins at 6 p.m.

DBA Annual Events

The Decatur Business Association sponsors a variety of events including the annual Decatur Beach Party. The DBA invites all members to get involved in the community by serving on volunteer committees. Please check the committees that interest you and we will contact you with more information.
